REPORT ON COMMITTEES. documents

We find a petition, from the South Carolina, Church, for a letter of dismission, from this body, and we recommend her request be granted, provided, she be found in good order. 2d we find two queries, sent up in the letter from the 3rd Dist., meeting, upon which they ask our advice. Query 1st. Is it right, for our churches, to receive members into their fellowship, who is an excluded member, of a sister church, belonging to a sister Association, when the church that excluded him, is in his reach? No.

Query 2d. Provided a church restores a member, who is an excluded member of a sister church, and Association, and afterwards dissolves, and grants him a letter in full fellowship, ought he to be received by his letter, into other churches, acquainted with the circumstances? And if not what course should be pursued, in order to set the matter right again? To this we answer, that he should not be received on his letter; we believe, that they would be illegally dissolved, and therefore, their letters null and void, and we recommend such a church, to come together again, and recind their acts.

Also we find a petition in the letter, from the fourth Dist., asking for letters of dismission, for all the churches, in her bounds, belonging to this body, in order to form a new Association; to this, we answer, that we believe their petition, is contrary to Baptist usage. R. Ivan, Chairman.

28—Granted the South Carolina, church, Fayette county Ala., a lettr of dismission from this body.

29—Adopted the answer, to 1st Query, sent up by the 3rd Dist., meeting, as given by the committee on documents; (which is "no.")

30—Adopted the answer given by the committee, to the 2nd Query, (which is 'no,') and also their advice to a church, dissolving under such circumstances.

31—Adopted the answer, given "by the committee," to the petition, from the 4th Dist., asking for letters of dismission for all the churches in her bounds, belonging to this body; we think the petition, illegal and contrary to Baptist usage.

32—The committee on finance reported, for printing Minutes, and Missionary purposes, $35.40, the money was handed over to the Treasurer, and the committee discharged.

33—Received the report of the executive board, which was adopted; and the board discharged.

At 4 o'clock, G. W. Bible, preached, followed by P. Lindford, the discourses were truly interesting, much zeal was manifested by the speakers; the congregation was very attentive; and a manifestation of the out pouring, of the spirit of God, was visible among them, and we hope great good was done.

CICULAR LETTER.

On the duty of church members to their Pastor. Beloved brethren, association as we are, in one general band of brother-hood, united together as a distinct people, known and read of all men, by our distinguished, and distinct features as a denomination; it becomes us well to look at our different posts, it is the will and appointment of the Lord Jesus Christ, the King and head of his church, that they should behave towards their Pastor, as his ministers, who come in his name, bear his commands, and transact his business; and who are to be treated in every respect, in a manner that corresponds with their office, in a subordinate sense. They are ambassadors for Christ, and are to be received and esteemed in a way that corresponds with the authority, and glory of him who commissions them; whoever slights, insults, or neglects them, in the discharge of their official duties, disobeys and despise their divine Master, who will keenly resent, all the injustice that are offered them; no earthly government, will allow its messengers, to be rejected and insulted with impunity, much less will the Lord of the Church, those who entertain low thoughts of the pastoral office, and neglect its ministration, who speaks contemptuously of their ministers, who excite a spirit of resistance to their churches, admonitions and reproofs; who endeavors to lessen that just reverence; to which for their works sake, and on their masters behalf, they are entitled; certainly despise them; and not only them. but him that sent them also. And for such conduct, will incur the heavy displeasure of Christ:—Luke' the 10th, & 16th; 1st, Thessalonians, 5th, & 13th, and now brethren, let us look at this matter as we should. But to descend to particulars, the duty of church members towards their Pastors, include. 1st—Submission to their just Scriptural authority; it is readily admitted, that the unscriptural, and usurped dominion of the Priest-hood, is the root, whence arose the whole system of Papal tyranny: which springing up like a tree of poison, in the garden of the Lord, withered by its shadow, and blighted by its influence, almost every plant and flower, of genuine christianity, there is an authority, belonging to the pastor, for office, without which he is of no use as a pastor. Remember them that have the rule over you, said Paul to the Hebrews, 13th, & 7th.—Only them that have the rule over you, submit yourselves to such, 1st, Cor's., 16th, 5th, & 16th: Obey them that have the rule over you, submit yourselves, for they watch for your souls, the 13th, & 17th. This is not done, at all times, by the members of our Churches.

2d.—Church members should treat their pastors with distinguishing honor, esteem and Love. Let the Elders that rule well, be accounted worthy of double honor, especially, they that labor in word and doctrine, 1st, Tim., 5th, & 17th. Know them that have the rule over you, and esteem them very highly in love, for their works sake, 1st, Thess., 5th, & 11th, 12th. Now the members should do all they could, to honor their pastors, as Christian Ministers they should esteem and love them, and do all they could to render them comfortable. 3d—Attendance on their ministration, is another duty church members owe to their pastors. This attendance should be constant, some of our members stay away, just long enough to keep from being dealt with, the pastor has to enquire after them, and this gives pain to him: this is not the way to honor our pastors; if the members have not love enough, for their pastor and the cause of Christ, to attend the ministration of the Gospel on every meeting day, he dishonors his pastor, and his own self, as a member and the cause of Christ. They should show to their pastor; their love and esteem towards them, by their attendance on sabbaths, or in the week, and at prayer meetings, and if they neglect all those, they show a sign of disrespect to their minister; and render themselves a fit subject of discipline.

4th—Earnest prayer.—How often, and earnestly, did the great apostle of the Gentiles, repeat that sentence which contained at once the authority of a command; and the tenderness of a petition? "Brethren, pray for us," in another place, he ascribes his deliverance and preservation, to the prayers of the Churches. You also helping together, by prayer for us: 2nd Cor., 1st & 11th. Surely then, if the apostle, Paul, trusted in the prayers of the church members, much more, the poor minister at this time. Then, members should pray for their pastor, at home, and at church, and in the silent grove, and in the closet they should pray for the increase of their spiritual gift, and spiritual qualifications; and ministerial success: they should pray for them at the family altar, and thus teach your children, and servants to respect and love them, little does our church know, the trials, difficulties, and temptations, they have to bare in attending them as their pastor.

It's not a cause of small import,
The pastors care demands,
But what might fill an angel's heart;
And fill a Saviour's hands.

5th.—Members should have a very tender regard for the character of their pastors, a minister's character, is the lock of his strength; and if this once be sacrificed, he is like Sampson, Shorn of his hair, the pity of his friends, and the derision of his enemies is upon him, and he is of no use to none; and it is all because the church do not discharge their duty.

6th.—A liberal support; is the last duty I shall treat upon, and the Scripture is very explicit on this head, let him that is taught, communicate to him that teacheth, in all good things.—Gal., 6th and 6th. Who goeth a warfare at any time, at his own charges; even so hath the Lord ordained, that they that preach the Gospel, should live of the Gospel.—1st Cor., 9th and 7th 14th. The necessity of this appears, from the injunction delivered to ministers, to devote themselves entirely to the duties of their office.—2nd Tim., 2nd & 4th, and 1st Tim., 4th & 13th 15th. I by no means, contend that it is unlawful for a minister, to engage in secular concerns, for necessity is law, which supercedes the ordinary rules of human conduct; and what are they to do, whose stipend is too poor to support a family? Ministers are under obligations to provide things honestly before the Lord; and in the sight of all men. To provide for his own house, and to owe no man any thing. How I ask, how he is to do this, and read his book, and ride to his churches, and preach to profit? I say he cannot, unless the members help him, they must be co-workers with him, and keep him up. Let it not be thought, that what is given to a minister, is a charitable donation; it is the payment of a just debt, it is what Christ claims for his faithful servants, and which cannot be withheld, without robbery; I speak for myself, and my brethren, the degrading apprehension, that we are supported by charity, we are not pensioners, upon mere bounty; our appeal is to justice, and if our claims are denied on this ground, we refuse to plead before any other tribunal: and refer the matter, to the Great Head of the Church.

BAPTIST DECLARATION OF FAITH.

1st. Of the Scriptures.—We believe the Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired, and as a perfect treasure of heavenly instruction; that it has God for its author, Salvation for its end, and Truth without any mixture or error of its matter; that it reveals the principles by which God will judge us; and therefore is, and shall remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian Union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds and opinions, should be tried.

2d. Of the true God.—That there is one, and only one, true and living God whose name Jehovah, the Maker and Supreme ruler of Heaven and Earth, inexpressibly glorious in holiness; worthy of all possible honor, confidence and love: revealed under the personal and relative distinction of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; equal in every divine perfection, and executing distinct but harmonious offices in the great work of redemption.

3d. Of the Fall of Man.—That man was created in a state of holiness under the law of his Maker, but by voluntary transgression fell from that holy and happy state, in consequence of which all mankind are now sinners, not by constraint but choice; being by nature utterly void of that holiness required by the law of God, wholly given to the gratification of the world, of Satan, and of their own sinful passions, and there under just condemnation to eternal ruin, without defence or excuse.

4th. Of the way of Salvation.—That the salvation of sinners is wholly of grace, through the mediatorial offices of the son of God, who took upon him our nature, yet without sin; honored the law by his personal obedience, and made atonement for our sins by his death; being risen from the dead, he is now enthroned in Heaven; and uniting in his wonderful person the tenderest sympathies with divine perfections, is every way qualified to be a suitable, a compassionate, and an all-sufficient Saviour.

5th. Of Justification.—That the great Gospel blessing, which Christ of fullness bestows on such as believe in him is justification; that justification consists in the pardon of sin, and the promise of eternal life, on principles of righteousness, that it is bestowed not in consideration of any works of righteousness, which we have done, but solely through his own redemption and righteousness, that it brings us into a state of most blessed peace and favor with God, and secures every other blessing needful for time and eternity.

6th. Of the freeness of Salvation.—That the blessings of salvation are made free to all by the Gospel; that it is the immediate duty of all to accept them by a cordial and obedient faith; and that nothing prevents the salvation of to the greatest sinner on earth, except his own voluntary refusal to submit to the Lord Jesus Christ; which refusal will subject him to an aggravated condemnation.

7th. Of Grace in Regeneration.—That in order to be saved, we must be regenerated or born again; that regeneration consists in giving a holy disposition to the mind, and is affected in a manner above our comprehension or calculation, by the power of the Holy Spirit; so as to secure our voluntary obedience to the Gospel, and that its proper evidence is found in the holy fruit which we bring forth to the glory of God.

8th. Of God's Purpose of Grace.—That election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which he regenerates, sanctifies, and saves sinners; that being perfectly consistent with the free agency of man, it comprehends all the means in connection with the end; that it is a most glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, being infinitely wise, holy and unchangeable; that it utterly excludes boasting, and promotes humility, prayer, praise, trust in God; and active imitation of his free mercy; that it encourages the use of means in the highest degree that it is ascertained by its effects; in all who believe the Gospel: it is the foundation of Christian assurance; and that to ascertain it with regard to our utmost diligence.

9th. Of the Perseverance of Saints.—That such only are real believers as endure to the end; that the persevering attachment to Christ is the grand mark which distinguishes them from superficial professors; that a special Providence watches over their welfare; and they are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

10th. Harmony of the Law and Gospel.—That the law of God is the eternal and unchangeable rule of his moral government; that it is holy, just and good; and that the inability which the Scriptures ascribe to fallen men to fulfill its precepts, arises entirely from their love of sin; to deliver them from which, and to restore them through a Mediator to unfeigned obedience to the holy law, is one great end of the Gospel, and of the means of grace connected with the establishment of the visible Church.

11th. Of a Gospel Church.—That a visible Church of Christ is a congregation of baptized believers, associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the Gospel; observing the ordinance of Christ, governed by his laws, exercising the gifts, rights and privileges invested in them by his word; whose only proper officers are bishops or pastors and deacons, whose qualifications, claims, and duties are defined in the epistles to Timothy and Titus.

12th. Of Baptism and the Lord's Supper.—That Christian Baptism is the immersion of a believer in water, in the name of the Father, Son and Spirit; to show forth in solemn and beautiful emblem, our faith in a crucified, buried and risen Savior; that it is pre-requisite to the privileges of a church relation, and to the Lord's Supper, in which the members of the Church, by the use of bread and wine, are to commemorate together the dying love of Christ; preceded always by solemn self-examination.

13th. Of the Christian Sabbath.—That the first day of the week is the Lord's Day, or Christian Sabbath, and is to be kept sacred to religious purposes, by abstaining from all secular labor and recreations; by the devout observance of all the means of grace, both private and public; and by preparation for the rest which remaineth for the people of God.

14th. Of Civil Government.—That civil government is of divine appointment, for the interests and good order of human society; and that magistrates are to be prayed for, conscientiously honored, and obeyed, except in things opposed to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the only Lord in the conscience, and the Prince of the kings of the earth.

15th. Of the Righteous and Wicked.—That there is a radical and essential difference between the righteous and wicked; that such only as through faith are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and sanctified by the Spirit of our God, are truly righteous in His esteem; while all such as continue in impenitence and unbelief are in His sight wicked, and under the curse, and this distinction holds among men both in and after death.

16th. Of the World to Come.—That the end of this world is approaching and that at the last day, Christ will descend from Heaven and raise the dead from the grave to final retribution; and that a solemn separation will then take place; that the wicked will be adjudged to endless punishment, and the righteous to endless joy; and that this judgement will fix forever the final state of men in heaven or hell, on principles of righteousness.
